The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of staves. The first system (measures 48-53) is labeled 'BRIDGE' and includes lyrics: 'such a fah - ne guh-ah ah duu duut duu duu duut duu duut duu duu duut f dohs dohs'. The second system (measures 54-59) includes lyrics: 'bop bop bah dohs dohs dah bop bah dah dah dat etc..'. The third system (measures 60-66) is labeled 'ENDING' and includes lyrics: '--ah ahh ff etc you're a fine guh - l'. The piano part features a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth and sixteenth notes, often in a triplet pattern.

There's a port on a western bay
And it serves a hundred ships a day
Lonely sailors pass the time away
And talk about their homes

And there's a girl in this harbor town
And she works layin' whiskey down
They say "Brandy, fetch another round"
She serves them whiskey and wine

The sailors say "Brandy, you're a fine girl" (you're a fine girl)
"What a good wife you would be" (such a fine girl)
"Yeah your eyes could steal a sailor from the sea"

Brandy wears a braided chain
Made of finest silver from the North of Spain
A locket that bears the name
Of the man that Brandy loves

He came on a summer's day
Bringin' gifts from far away
But he made it clear he couldn't stay
No harbor was his home
CHORUS

BRIDGE:
Yeah, Brandy used to watch his eyes
When he told his sailor stories
She could feel the ocean foam rise
She saw its ragin' glory
But he had always told the truth, lord, he was an honest man
And Brandy does her best to understand

At night when the bars close down
Brandy walks through a silent town
And loves a man who's not around
She still can hear him say.. she hears him say..
